A Message from the President/CEO

Dear Villagers,

I hope you had a wonderful holiday season! As we enter this new year, I'm looking forward with anticipation to all the opportunities that await us – I hope you are too!

One of the highlights of my first few weeks in my new role has been the opportunity to meet so many of you. I want to thank you for the warm welcome and taking the time to share with me all the things that make CKV a wonderful place to live. Your stories have been both heartwarming and inspiring, and I feel honored to serve as your President/CEO. This truly is a special place!

On a final note, I would like to extend an invitation to join me on Thursday, January 23 from 1:00 – 3:00 pm in the Harmony Ridge Garden Room for a Meet & Greet event. This will be a wonderful time to connect and get to know each other as we share light refreshments. I hope to see you there!

Sincerely,
Bev Asper
President and CEO

Harmony Ridge Showcases Holly Fetting, Ext. 5544 Director of Life Enrichment

For the month of January, we are pleased to display wooden bowls and vases made in the CKV Woodshop by John Laudermilch. John moved to Cross Keys in 2017 and soon joined the woodshop, where he learned to turn bowls on the lathe. He chooses a piece of wood, studying the color variations and unique grain before designing a bowl. A wide variety of wood species are used to make these items. Many hours are spent at a lathe in the woodshop, followed by sanding and applications of oil finishes. Some bowls are finished with food-safe oils; others receive Tung oil. In 2024, John began making vases for dried flowers. They were made by gluing together different woods before turning.

All bowls and vases are for sale with a percentage of proceeds given to the Good Samaritan Fund and to the woodshop. To purchase, contact John at 717-624-2282.

Stars of Europe Virtual Concert Series 2025 Preview

Al Karasa, Ext. 5194

As the year ends, plans for 2025 emerge for the fourth year of the Stars of Europe Virtual Concert Series. I expect to have another fun year putting this together and hope to share with you the cornucopia of traditional and pop musical selections we seldom hear in the U.S. No change in basic presentation format is anticipated. But a new array of entertainers is being added to my list. They are drawn from well-established stars already popular in Europe, as well as rising new performers yet to be universally recognized. So, there will be some already familiar to us, but also a few just finding their wings in their rise to stardom. We will see Candy Dulfer, Sissel Kyrkjebø, Liane Folly, Men I Trust, Aurora, Gipsy Kings, The Corrs, Adele, Hania Rani, Indila, Gigi De Lana, Trintje Oosterhuis, and more. Unlike so many of our concerts in the U.S., their performances have no pyrotechnics, dry ice vapors, flashing laser lights, revealing costumes, or bizarre distractions — just a marvelous display of musicianship. That's what Stars of Europe Virtual Concert Series brings you at our theater on the fourth Thursday of each month.

Volunteers Needed

Cindy Boyer, Ext. 5227, Volunteer Services

Volunteer Services is looking for the following:

- Volunteers to transport Sun Valley Healthcare residents to and from Peace Valley Lounge on Sunday mornings for church services. The time commitment would be 9:30 - 10:30 am.
- Strong volunteers to help periodically set up and tear down for events. This would involve setting up, moving, and tearing down tables and chairs.

You must be a registered volunteer to fill these needs. If you are not registered, Volunteer Services will work with you on the necessary steps. To volunteer in healthcare, you must read and sign the healthcare education packet and not volunteer in another clinical area (i.e. Personal Care or Brookside). Please contact Cindy Boyer at 717-624-5227 with any questions.

Three Steps to a Wonderful New Year

Pastor Linda Titzell, Ext. 5580

Thank You

Pastor Linda Titzell, Ext. 5588

The Faith Community Christmas Eve offering this year was designated for the Church World Service (CWS) Blankets Project. Thanks to your generous giving, the church was able to send a check to CWS for $2,445. Our monetary gift will provide blankets to persons in need right here in the United States. Thank you again!

Ralph Waldo Emerson suggested that one should write on his heart that every year can be the best year he ever lived. Therefore, I'd like to give you a text for the New Year. It's so short that all you need to do is write it on your consciousness. This will see you through the beginning, the middle, and the end of the year. It is the first four words with which the Bible begins: "In the beginning God . . ." Take Him at the start and you will have a wonderful time in the New Year. Then follow these steps.

1. Practice the art of forgetting. Man is what he remembers, but man is also what he forgets. One of the healthiest things a human being can do is to become a master of forgetting. Whatever you do, don't lug your resentments, your hates, your frustrations, your disappointments, your regrets into the new year. Drop it, skip it, let it go— whatever it is. Start anew.
2. Take hold of the new year and shake the life out of it. Drop the 't' off forget and forge ahead. Live a day at a time and take it as it comes. In order to get to January 2nd you have to live through January 1st. Live a day at a time and live on the basis of easy does it. Just take it as it comes.
3. Expect great things and put your life in God's hands. Have high hopes, have great dreams, have great belief. Believe that life is good and that it is going to be better and the best is yet to come. You are very likely to get just what you expect.

Prayer - Holy and loving God, we thank You for life, with all its hopes, its dreams, and its opportunities. Help us to put our hands in Yours trustingly, and help us to live by the text, "In the beginning God..." Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Excerpts, Norman Vincent Peale in Guideposts, date unknown)

An adorable tale of friendship and loyalty, the 2000 film "My Dog Skip" is based on a memoir by Willie Morris who grew up in the 1940's in Yazoo City, Mississippi, and went on to become the editor of Harper's magazine. Willie was a shy lonely child. He was not good at sports, he didn't make friends easily, and he had a standoffish relationship with his dad. His mom decided Willie needed a dog for his ninth birthday and his life changed forever. With Skip's remarkable and unconventional help, Willie and Skip turned bullies into friends, tangled with hapless moonshiners, and even got close to the girl for whom he had a crush. The movie was filmed in Yazoo City, Mississippi, and won the Broadcast Film Critics Award for "Best Family Film" for the year 2000.

"My Dog Skip" will be shown with closed captioning and is rated PG for a handful of mild profanities.

The best pop singers in France are all women. We don't know why the men there don't do as well as the ladies. But that's okay. The ladies are all beautiful, and they sing like angels. Those represented here are recognized all across Europe as the best contemporary pop stars of recent years. You may recognize Lara Fabian and Isabelle Geffroy, who have already been featured here in their own concerts. Among the others, we'll see Emilie Simon, Indila, Julie Zenatti, Anggun, Liane Foly, Nolwenn Leroy, Louane, Isabelle Boulay, Cyrille Aimée, Mireille Mathieu, and Francesca Gagnon with an enjoyable array of songs spanning the full spectrum of French pop, including some songs done in English.
