Our next Avenue Art Exhibit, “Framed,” opens on Friday, March 21, and submissions are due by Friday, March 7. The guidelines for this exhibit are quite simple: choose a frame from the extensive selection of donated frames in the Art Education Studio and use it around or within the artwork that you create for this exhibit. We have frames ranging in size from very small to quite large from which you can choose. We encourage you to be creative in the way that you work one of the frames into your artwork. Let’s get Framed!

The frames can be found in Storage Room B, in the Art Education Studio. See Monte if you have questions or would like help choosing a frame.

Area High School Musicals

Nikki Bull, Ext. 5294, Life Enrichment Specialist

“Theater is a verb before it is a noun, an act before it is a place.” – Martha Graham. This quote highlights that theater is all about action and experience, not just the place. If you’d like to enjoy an evening (or afternoon) of entertainment and creativity while encouraging the performers, here is a list of each school’s performance schedule. God's Love

Pastor Linda Titzell, Ext. 5580

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. - John 3:16

Valentine's Day produces mixed emotions for many people. Although it should be a time to celebrate love with a significant other, for many it's a reminder of failed relationships, the loss of a loved one, or lack of a relationship. However, one love remains constant, faithful, and consistent...God's love for us. His love never fails us.

Love is the essence of God's character. While other relationships may fail, God's love is permanent. Our faults, mistakes, and shortcomings do not negate God's love for us. Author Philip Yancey writes, "Grace teaches us that God loves because of who God is, not because of who we are."

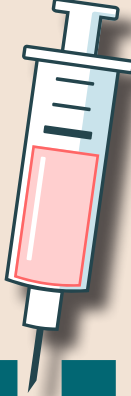

Why is God's love important? Human love can be imperfect, limited, and conditional. This is not to say that the love humans feel for one another is not real, but it cannot measure up to the love that God feels for each and every one of us. The more we embrace the love from our creator, the more we learn to love others.

On this Valentine's Day remember to show your friends, family, and loved ones just how much they mean to you. If you have lost a loved one or find yourself in a broken or distant relationship, take comfort in God's love for you. As C.S. Lewis said, "Though our feelings come and go, God's love for us does not." May His love fill your heart.

Prayer - Lord, thank you for your unconditional love for us; teach us to love others as You love us. Amen

(Excerpt Guideposts Daily Devotion, February 2021)
